Queen's takes centre stage

In recognition of a remarkable gift of $5 million to the Faculty of Arts and Science, Queen's University is proud to introduce the Dan School of Drama and Music.

Aubrey Dan is a Canadian business leader, Tony Award®-winning producer, impresario and philanthropist. This gift from two proud Queen's parents, Aubrey and Marla Dan, will transform teaching and research, provide dynamic and inventive learning opportunities for students, and position Queen's to become the pre-eminent school of drama and music in Canada.
